

Basic Life Support in pregnancy

Note: this algorithm is similar to that for the child in order to reflect the underlying pathology and for ease of learning

© ALSG & CAI 2008

Caesarean section should be viewed as part of the resuscitation of the mother and if no response to CPR the baby should be delivered within 5 minutes of cardiac arrest regardless of the state of the fetus